Marsch: Paul Lüönd

First system of musical notation for 'Zoll vom Hochmoor'. It consists of a single staff with a treble clef and a 4/4 time signature. The music begins with a repeat sign and a first ending bracket. The notes are primarily eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together. Fingering numbers (5, 4, 3, 2, 1, 8) are written below the notes. There are also some 'x' marks above notes, possibly indicating breath marks or specific articulation.

Second system of musical notation. It continues the melody from the first system. The notation includes various rhythmic values and fingering numbers. There are some 'x' marks above notes, likely indicating breath marks.

Third system of musical notation. It continues the melody. The notation includes various rhythmic values and fingering numbers. There are some 'x' marks above notes, likely indicating breath marks.

Fourth system of musical notation. It features a first ending bracket with two endings, labeled '1.' and '2.'. The notation includes various rhythmic values and fingering numbers. There are some 'x' marks above notes, likely indicating breath marks.

Fifth system of musical notation. It continues the melody. The notation includes various rhythmic values and fingering numbers. There are some 'x' marks above notes, likely indicating breath marks.

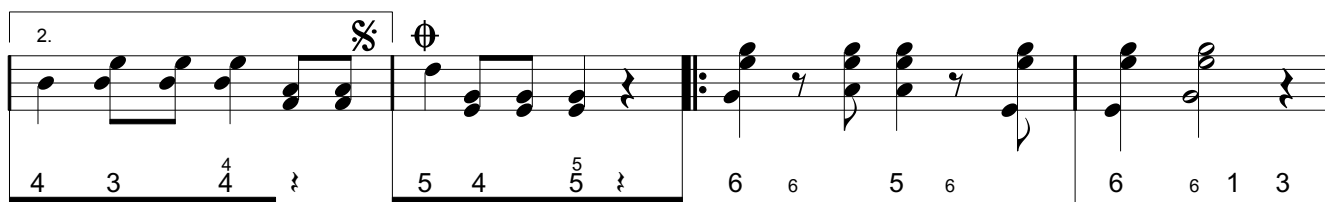

Sixth system of musical notation. It continues the melody. The notation includes various rhythmic values and fingering numbers. There are some 'x' marks above notes, likely indicating breath marks.

Seventh system of musical notation. It concludes the piece with a first ending bracket and a final cadence. The notation includes various rhythmic values and fingering numbers. There are some 'x' marks above notes, likely indicating breath marks.
